NARRATIVE

On 12/22/2013 at approximately 0007 hours, I was dispatched to contact a complainant in reference to a suspicious incident. Upon speaking to the complainant, I learned that the access information to the Round Rock ISD websites had been provided on a public internet forum, and numerous pages had been hacked. A report was taken.

OFFICER NARRATIVE: On 12/22/2013 at approximately 0007 hours, I was dispatched to contact a complainant in reference to a suspicious incident.

I identified the complainant as Tanya Sue Waters (W/F DOB [REDACTED]). Waters stated that she had been reading the "4chan.org" website under the "/b/" section when she noticed that someone had provided the admin log in information for all of the Round Rock ISD school websites. She saw some of the terrible hacking that had been done and called RRPD to let us know. When I pulled up various school sites, I confirmed that almost all of them had been hacked to contain nude, vulgar, racist and otherwise inappropriate content by numerous users.

Waters emailed me screen shots from the forum where the post was made. The initial entry was by "4chan.org/b/522673283" that stated the following below:

Redoing thread:

I've got a raid for my old school districts website.

>www.roundrockisd.org

All the schools have the admin password as:

Fuck up anything

Lets do this

After this post was made, hundreds of other comments were made in reply. Numerous mentions were made of this being illegal, and talk was made regarding the use of proxy servers to hide IP addresses. Other than the "/b/522673283" tag, there is no other information provided on the people posting entries.

I initially contacted Michelle Foust with RRISD who then referred me to JoyLynn Occhiuzzi, the Executive Director of Community Relations and Legal Services for RRISD. She stated that she had been aware of it since around 2300 hours, and had been in touch with Sharp School who manages the RRISD websites and servers. They advised that they were not hacked, but someone had logged in using credentials.

Occhiuzzi requested a report be taken, and she stated that she would be the point of contact for further investigation. Her contact number is 512-590-9711.

The screen shots were saved to a disk and submitted into evidence.

Based on the statements made and the access credentials possessed, I believe that it was an RRISD IT or programmer who made the original post. Occhiuzzi confirmed that there has been a high turnover in the IT department, but that students should not have access to those credentials.

WITNESS INTERVIEW(S): N/A

EVIDENCE: Screenshots were submitted into evidence.

On 12-22-14 at 14:56hours I took a call from dispatch that was in reference to the Round Rock ISD computer webpages being hacked yesterday. The caller was identified as:

*Garcia, Joseph
DOB | w/m
(Cell)
#512-721-9611
(Residence)
18724 Derby Hill
Pflugerville, TX

Joseph stated that his son admitted to his mom and him that he found a link to hack RRISD's website on a blog hosted by reddit.com. Joseph stated his son was upset over it due to the fact that he reposted the link onto another blog hosted by 4chan.org. Joseph identified his son as:

*Garcia, Dylan
DOB w/m
7th grader @ Canyon Vista Jr. High in Austin, TX

Joseph stated that Dylan claims he doesn't know anything else about the hack link except finding it on the blog pasting it onto the other blog. Joseph stated that his son uses the sites frequently for comical postings etc. that other youth post onto the sites.

On 12-22-2013 at 1944 hours, I spoke to Donna Weaver WF Dob, by phone. Weaver stated that she learned about the incident of the Round Rock ISD website being hacked and altered. Weaver stated that she worked for IBM for 27 years and decided to do her own investigating to assist with identifying the hacking suspects.

Weaver said that she was able to locate two Twitter pages on the internet for persons claiming responsibility for the hacking. The two pages were "@SPEZTRA and @GAYBAGEL". Weaver believed that one suspect may be named Kyle but wasn't positive. She then reported that she looked at some of the friends' posts to @SPEZTRA and located a subject that went by the name Chris Jung and posted, "LOL, I HOPE YOU USED A DIFFERENT IP." Weaver said that another post read, "It's funny that our school teaches us HTML." By that post, it's my belief that a student is responsible for the act.

I advised complainant I have no knowledge of how Twitter works or how to research that information or even view it, so the information she provided would be forwarded to CID for further investigation.

On 12/22/2013 at approximately 0430 hours, I was monitoring the 4chan.org posts regarding the breach of the RRISD website when I discovered additional information.

Shortly before the thread on the forum was pulled, I noted that multiple different people wrote posts claiming that "Mason Flynn" or "Mason Flynt" was responsible for posting the RRISD access credentials on the internet. No other information was present other than these two names.

I located a Mason Flynn linked to 1302 Meadows Dr in our city. There is no TXDL or DOB associated with him, and I was unable to find any additional information past the one RMS entry. The RMS ID for this subject is 142371. The entry was made resulting from a motor vehicle crash where Flynn was listed as an additional occupant. The driver in the crash was Karen Aikin, one of the residents at 1302 Meadows Dr.

No further information about the possible suspect is available.

On Sunday, December 22, 2013, I learned of the intrusion into the Round Rock Independent School District's website. I contacted JoyLynn Occhiuzzi and learned that a third party actually administers the website for the RRISD. Sharpshool provides the website services for the RRISD, which includes each individual school campus within the RRISD. Several individual school sites as well as the main RRISD district site had been compromised and pornographic images and racially motivated messages had been posted.

I also spoke with Mark Gabehart, the RRISD I.T. Manager regarding the breach. I learned that Sharpshool had established a "master" access profile for the RRISD site, "admin" was the user login and "admin1" was the password. This access profile was shared with several trainers within RRISD. The access profile appeared to have been posted on December 22, 2013 within a site known for hacking/system intrusion discussion, "4chan.com". Shortly after the access profile was posted on 4chan.com, the site received numerous alterations. Mr. Gabeghart advised that the site is not maintained on the RRISD internal server, which stores student identifying information. Mr. Gabeghart stated that the website had been taken down by Sharpshool and was in the process of restoring the site to a previous date, prior to the intrusion. I participated in a conference call at 9 PM with RRISD I.T. personnel and Sharpshool personnel to discuss the status of the website and what evidence was either available or needed. I requested all I.P. addresses that accessed the site during the intrusion. Sharpshool personnel advised they had approximately 172 different I.P. addresses during that time.

On Monday, December 23, 2013, Lt. Rosenbusch, Analyst Kristen Byrnes and I met with RRISD I.T. personnel. We discussed the progress and information obtained via Twitter concerning the discussion of the intrusion. We discussed the importance of obtaining the I.P. address used during the intrusion. RRISD personnel offered complete cooperation in providing student information for any possible suspects or witnesses identified in this case.

I requested a Williamson County Grand Jury subpoena to Twitter for the various Twitter user account information. I also sent a preservation letter to Twitter for the activity on December 22, 2013 for the various accounts discovered discussing the intrusion.

On Monday, December 27, 2013, I also requested a Williamson County Grand Jury subpoena for 4chan.com for December 22, 2013 concerning the postings of all users discussing the RRISD intrusion.

On January 6, 2014, I obtained the requested Williamson County Grand Jury subpoenas for Twitter and the domain provider of the 4chan.com site.

On January 7, 2014, I attempted to send the subpoena to the domain provider for 4chan.com, Oversee Domain Management, however, they did not have a subpoena compliance or legal department contact. I called the company's main number (213/265-3191) and left a message concerning service of the subpoena.

On January 8, 2014, I sent, via fax, the subpoena to Twitter (415/222-9958). I also received the hard drive from Sharp School of the server logs and databases for activity resulting in the intrusion. I placed the hard drive, the letter from Sharps School detailing the hard drive contents as well as the Federal Express shipping form used to deliver the hard drive to me at RRPD into Evidence.

Lt. Rosenbusch assisted in the review of the server drives and the digital evidence obtained in this case. It appears the suspect(s) utilized proxy servers, thereby blocking or disguising their actual I.P. addresses.

Pending the development of additional information concerning the digital evidence in this case, it will be inactive.
